

Another Royal Suggestion

BISCUITS, BUNS and ROLLS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BISCUIT! What de-light this word suggests. So tender they fairly melt in the mouth, and of such glorious flavor that the appetite is never satisfied. These are the kind of biscuits anyone can make with Royal Baking Powder and these unusual recipes.

Biscuits

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk or half milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; add shortening and rub in very lightly; add liquid slowly; roll or pat on floured board to about one inch in thickness (handle as little as possible); cut with biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Royal Cinnamon Buns

2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons seeded raisins

Sift 2 tablespoons of measured sugar with flour, salt and baking powder; rub shortening in lightly; add beaten egg to water and add slowly. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on floured board; brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll as for jelly roll; cut into 1/2 inch pieces; place with cut edges up on well-greased pan; sprinkle with a little sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 20 to 25 minutes; remove from pan at once.

Parker House Rolls

4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
6 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 1/2 cups milk

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Add melted shortening to milk and add slowly to dry ingredients stirring until smooth. Knead lightly on floured board and roll out 1/2 inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter. Crease each circle with back of knife one side of center. Butter the small section and fold larger part well over the small. Place one inch apart in greased pan. Allow to stand 15 minutes in warm place. Brush each with melted butter and bake in moderate oven 15 to 20 minutes.

ANOTHER WORD.

My article in the last issue about the trip to Oconee and Anderson as a subject, grew so long that we omitted to say a few things that we desire to say since we have been writing about this section.

I want publicly to thank Mr. J. A. Steck editor and publisher of the good old Keowee Courier for the many courtesies he has extended to me in the work I had of taking the census, and of course I called to see him on this trip. The Courier is one of the oldest papers in the State, and is one of the best of the country weeklies. It has always been so considered and Mr. Steck has kept it up to the standard of his worthy predecessors. And by the way he is the son of the Rev. Dr. J. Steck who was at one time pastor of the Lutheran Church in Newberry and is remembered by many of the older citizens of the town. And his sister Miss Mattie who married Lawyer Robert T. Jaynes also lives in Walhalla and his mother and two other of the sisters are living there. Mr. Steck had one of the most beautiful homes in the up-country and but recently sold it to Mr. Alexander the treasurer of Oconee county. If I had just known he was going to sell I would have made an effort to raise the price and move to this good town.

And then there is Auditor D. A. Smith who knows Oconee county like a book and who gave me very valuable assistance, and Treasurer Alexander and Sheriff Alexander and all the others have been very nice and courteous and I will always have pleasant recollections of my trips to Oconee. And speaking of the Alexanders a brother is sheriff of the county and another brother is State senator from the good old county of Pickens, and they are all very clever fellows and I appreciate their help and cooperation in the work which I had in hand.

There have been some very pleasant features connected with the work of supervising the census. I have formed many new acquaintances and friendships among the people of the third district and all of the people including the county officials and the newspaper editors have been exceedingly nice to me and have given great assistance in the work.

I would be glad if the department would announce the population of some of the towns in the district including Newberry so that the people might know what the count shows in 1920. I am not permitted to give out any figures, and I reckon it is well, because there might be a slight change when the official figures are made and some slight errors might cause the official figures to differ from mine. Only two of the towns in this district have had the population published, Anderson and Greenwood.

I mentioned that I made a stop at Autun and met Mr. Ben M. Aull who is a son of Mr. W. B. Aull who is in charge of the cotton oil mill at Pendleton and a former Newberrian. Mr. B. M. Aull is in charge of the Autun manufacturing company and is doing well. He is interested in orange groves down in Florida and on account of visits to the land of flowers does not find much time to visit his old home county. Mr. W. B. Aull has made a fine success of the Pendleton oil mill and was on a trip to New Orleans when I was up that side the last time. On a former visit I spent a few hours with him and his good wife in the good old historic town of Pendleton, and there are some mighty nice and comfortable looking old homes here and beautiful flower yards that have a real homelike appearance and make one feel like he would not mind pitching his tent in this beautiful and historic town. This town at one time was a favorite summer resort for many Charleston people and many of them had their own homes here and some of these old time places are beautiful at this season and a little later with their fine flower gardens and shade trees. And by the way, there is in the public square of this place one of those sun dials that I spoke of in a former article. I found one at the old Pettigrew place in McCormick and then I was told that there was one in the yard of Mrs. Clara McCrary in Newberry, and now I find one in Pendleton. And one time and for a long time I was of the opinion that the sun dial at Barnwell was the only one in the State. I have no doubt now that there are possibly many more of these relics of the past in South Carolina.

Meetings at Mollohon and Oakland.

Southern Christian Advocate.

We are glad to report that our work on Mollohon and Oakland charge is progressing nicely. All of our church conference claims have been paid in full. We have held two meetings, and as a result of these meetings ten persons have been added to the charge. Rev. C. L. Harris of Greenwood did the preaching for our Oakland meeting. He is a splendid preacher and a devout man of God, and has added many more friends to his large list, and had we not been forced to close the meeting on account of influenza he would have won many souls for the Kingdom.

Rev. Ray Anderson of Laurens, who is known by many, and loved by all who know him, did the preaching at Mollohon. The Lord was with us, souls were converted and added to the church. Thirty-two persons have joined the church this year, and others are thinking of doing so.

We are proud of our little country church, Jalapa. The folks all around Jalapa are our friends, and we are glad for the time to come for us to be among them. We have many friends at Mollohon and Oakland among other denominations as well as our own.

We want to thank the people for their kindness to us, the nice furniture for the parsonage, the good things to eat, the nice presents they have given us, and the glad welcome, seasoned with smiles, with which they always greet us.

We want to express our hearty appreciation to the Mollohon Manufacturing company for the nice little five-room bungalow parsonage and their fine contribution to the pastor's salary, and Oakland Mills for their donation. We have never asked these companies for anything we did not get. May God bless them all.

FURNITURE MAN
PRAISES TANLAC

Anderson Dealer Took Eleven Bottles For His Ills.

HAD SPENT MUCH.

Tanlac Gave Him Relief and His General Condition Was Improved, He Says.

"Tanlac is a good medicine and has done some wonderful things for sufferers. It is particularly good for stomach troubles, as I know from having taken Tanlac. Other members of my family also are taking Tanlac." In these words, W. M. Myers, a well known furniture dealer of 1305 South Main street, Anderson, S. C., summed up his high opinion of the merits of this remarkably fine remedy.

"I suffered from kidney trouble, and I also was bothered with liver and bladder ailments and constipation. I suffered long and severely with a pain in my left side, which baffled all the treatments I ever tried for it, and I even had to undergo an operation. All that time I spent a great deal of money seeking to restore my good health, but I failed to get the relief I sought.

"The advertisements of Tanlac caught my attention and I began taking it. My general condition was improved, and the remedy gave me relief from my troubles in a general way. I took eleven bottles of Tanlac, and if it had not helped me I would not have taken so much."

Corn
Pain
Stopped
Quick

"Gets-It" Loosens Them So They Lift Off in A Jiffy.

The corn pains cease as soon as a few drops of "Gets-It" reach the corn. It goes out of the hurting business forever.

For a day or so the corn remains, getting looser and looser and without a twinge from it. Then, it goes off, without even feeling it, and cast it away. That's how easily and simply "Gets-It" disposes of the corn nuisance.

"Gets-It" the unfailing, guaranteed, moneyback corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Newberry and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by W. G. Mayes.
